

FIVE ARE INJURED IN CAR WRECK

"Our Town" J. B. WHITE

Even those inclined to disagree with President Roosevelt must applaud the courage exhibited in disapproving the bonus bill. Whether the payment of the adjusted service compensation certificates at this time is wise or just is just another question. Here was the president facing a dangerous political issue with an obligation to execute his duties in accord with his own convictions. That he did so with quibbling is reassuring.

It is worth nothing that Mr. Roosevelt is apparently willing to stand or fall on his own merits. Everybody remembers that he recently told the leaders of big business where to go. Now he points the same direction to those who lead the veteran's lobby. Both organizations are powerful and able to hurt even a president when and if they seek political revenge.

It might be well for the people to realize that the present occupant of the White House has a mind of his own. To stem the depression he has set in motion many innovations but, it may be, when the nation recovers he will be just as vigorous in chopping away the debris of unnecessary bureaucracy. While seeking to advance commodity prices and to equalize the national income he may do many things that he will consider unwise once the goal has been attained. To oppose excess and avoid extravagance when that day comes will require as much courage as any man has and it will be necessary for Mr. Roosevelt to say "no" to other groups seeking special treatment and governmental favors.

When the average citizen looks ahead and attempts to foresee what will be going on here one hundred years from now the only limit to the vision of the future is the ceiling of human imagination. After the progressive developments of the last century it would require a wise man to say what is not possible. An English divine sees, one hundred years from now, a world without war, poverty or disease. Truly a great picture but how can it be?

The race will not acquire the abolition of war, poverty or disease without treading the pathway of laborious effort, which will be necessary to abolish these evils. It will require not alone labor, but spiritual regeneration of the human soul, a reformation of educational activities and a reconstruction of economic order. Is the gain worth the price? That is the question to be answered first. If it is, then the average individual should prepare himself to take part in the great endeavor. Every citizen of Cameron has a part to play in the progressive development of the race, which cannot be ignored.

The collapse of the NRA under a Supreme Court decision leads one to wonder if all the New Deal policies are not in the pathway of the constitutional sickle. Farmers in Milam county will find it necessary in the protection of their interests to keep up with what happens in Washington and particularly the methods adopted by business to secure legislation favorable for profits.

To say that the farmer has been exploited in past years is not enough. One should emphasize that agriculturalists everywhere are exploited unless they are alert, intelligent and organized. It is important for farmers to understand, as Secretary Wallace observes, that no set program is involved. What benefits agriculture today may not do so tomorrow. The future must be faced with a mind open to change.

The argument of Big Business today as we understand it, is to postpone all manner of reform legislation because it might disturb business and prevent the nation from Superintendent E. A. Perrin of the Cameron Schools has been tendered the place of supervision over the Summer teachers training school at Southwestern University.

Mr. Perrin will not be able to accept the place because of duties in Cameron this summer.

Dr. Ulrich, dean of Southwestern, asked Mr. Perrin to go to Georgetown this summer an direct the training school for the teachers. Mr. Perrin appreciates the tender but due to the number of things here this summer cannot go. He will teach a summer school in Cameron and is working on plans for a gymnasium.

Patrons of Cameron schools will be glad to know that their superintendent ranks thus among Texas educators.

BOB WHITE CHARGED IN SHOOTING FRIDAY

Charges of assault with intent to murder have been filed here against Bob White of Davilla. He was arrested by Sheriff R. M. Kennedy and Deputy Clarence McCall Friday following a shooting at Val Verde.

He was released under $500 bond. He is charged with shooting W. E. Luco, garage man at Val Verde following a dispute over a garage bill. White claims self defense with the statement that Luco was advancing to strike him with a piece of timber. He drew a savage automatic and shot Luco in the left leg, it was said.

moving into great "recovery." Six years ago if we understand it, the position of the Big Business was that nothing should be done to frighten the delicate sensibilities of business because it would destroy the great prosperity that was sweeping the nation and threatening to become permanent.

In brief, ladies and gentlemen, the position of Big Business, in times of depression as well as in the days of prosperity, is not to do anything that will interfere with profits, whether the profits be based upon honest service or special advantages given by law or taken by monopoly.

CAMP TO ASK PRISON TERM FOR N. J. GREEN

BULLETIN

N. J. Green was acquitted by a jury in district court Wednesday afternoon following a dramatic plea to the jury by Jack Lewis, former district attorney.

N. J. Green, charged with violating the Texas liquor laws and maintaining a nuisance in Rockdale, went to trial Monday afternoon in District court here.

He was arrested by the Grand Jury when raids were made in Cameron and Rockdale, simultaneously. It is the first of the liquor cases under Criminal District attorney Camp. Former Criminal District Attorney Jack Lewis, was on the other side of the case, defending Mr. Green. Considerable importance was said to attach to his case because it would in some measure be a plumb-bob of public sentiment.

Liquor laws have not been enforced in Milam county in some time. The state will vote on repeal in August.

GAS AD TELLS 25 YEARS OF PROGRESS

A quarter of a century in developing complete natural gas service is depicted in an advertisement of the Lone Star Gas System and affiliated companies, published in today's issue of this newspaper.

Twenty five years ago natural gas service was virtually unknown in Texas. Wood, coal and kerosene fires did the cooking and heating, except in the larger cities where manufactured gas carried considerable of the cooking load. In those days smoking chimneys were a sign of prosperity, and soot laden cities accepted their murky atmosphere because they did not know any better. Today all Texas cities using gas are served with natural gas.

Then in 1909 L. B. Denning organized the Lone Star Gas Company and in the fall of the same year started the first long distance pipeline, running from Petrolia to Fort Worth and Dallas, a distance of 135 miles, was completed in February 1910 and service was started to Fort Worth in that month, reaching Dallas in April 1910. From that time, through many struggles, the system has spread over a territory larger than some states and reaches even out of the way villages, bringing a modern gas service to small towns equal in quality to that enjoyed by the cities.

From one pipeline and 15,000 customers, the company has grown into an interconnected system of 4,000 miles of line serving about 300 towns and cities. From an uncertain and at times inadequate gas supply, through years of struggle for gas reserves, financial difficulties, labor shortage and serious engineering problems, the company has worked its way up to the type of natural gas service known at present throughout this territory.

The advertisement published in this paper sketches the pipeline system, indicates the towns where the company maintains offices, shows a few of the high spots in the company's history, and pictures modern gas equipment now available to gas patrons.

JUDGE AND MRS. KEMP ARE AMONG THOSE HURT

The injured are: Judge Jeff T. Kemp, Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp, Miss Alice Fanning, Miss Myra Lee Fanning and Miss Ray Fanning, a member of the Yoe High graduating class.

The party had attended graduation exercises at Thorndale High School and were returning home. In an effort to avoid a crash the Kemp car was forced off the road into a ditch 10 feet deep, plunging into an embankment.

The truck sped on failing to stop and render aid. Mrs. Kemp was unconscious from the impact and was badly cut on the forehead. A number of stitches were taken. She also suffered other cuts and bruises. Judge Kemp suffered a badly cut hand and cuts on the head and other injuries.

Julius Lange will receive the Herald for the next twelve months at his address on route 4 out of Rosebud. The Herald will go to his address for the first time this week. His name was placed on the reader list Saturday by Miss Hilda Stoeber who was a visitor in the city. The publishers are glad to introduce Mr. Lange as a new reader and appreciate his reader interest. He will find many things of interest in these columns each week.

Mrs. R. F. Biefeldt of Wichita Falls is here on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Slaughter, and witnessed the graduation of her sister, Miss Winonah Slaughter Tuesday evening.

The Herald is glad to correct the published report last week that Robert Lange, well known farmer in the Watts Switch community, had been in the hospital. Mr. Lange has been quite ill but was never in the hospital. He is reported doing well. Miss Hilda Stoeber, his niece, was in Cameron Saturday and called to give the Herald this report. His many friends wish for Mr. Lange a speedy recovery.

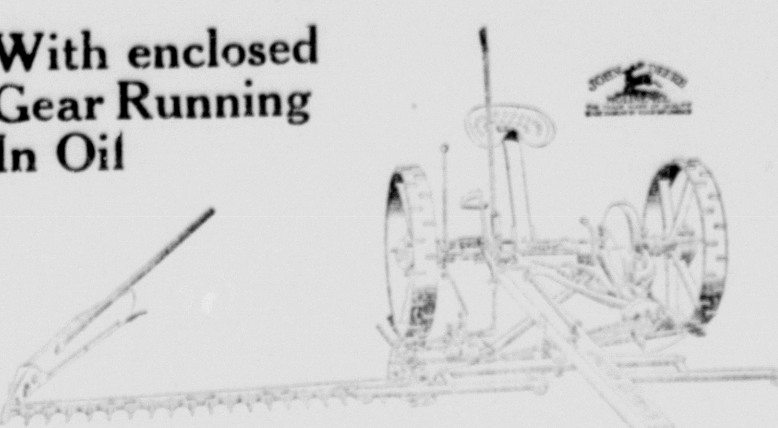

Secretary Cordell Hull failed to give a promised address on the subject of neutrality before the American Society of International Law. This failure to appear certainly indicates that there exists a difference of opinion in administration circles on the subject. Mr. Hull knows "his onions," for administration history is full of incidents where spokesmen have had to literally swallow their words. Texas' Jesse Jones, tactful and keen minded, placed himself in a considerable "jam" a few days back by commenting on the bonus before a group of bankers. When he returned from a fishing trip, he discovered that his remarks had stirred the waters to great commotion. He had to eel out. The Hon. Secretary was too slick to be hooked.

On April 30, a bomb was exploded in Vienna, Austria. Five hundred arrests were made. A secretary of the Chancellor's was so badly injured that he had to have his leg amputated. Swastika fires were lit. Swastika flags were hoisted. A big Swastika flag was unfurled from one of the high steeples of a church. The Prager Presse was confiscated. Austria had been rather quiet during the few weeks preceding the outbreak. We had about concluded that things were not normal in that turbulent little country. All is well.

Candy suckers with animal faces were also passed. Favors were decorated whistles.

Story of Cameron Dog Will be Printed From The Herald In "The Chase"

Penn Wolf, district clerk, informs the Herald that a story in the issue of April 18th about "Duke", prize Walker fox hound, killed by a train in Robertson county, will be published in "The Chase", nationally known magazine among dog fanciers.

"Duke" was on the trail of a fox. The trail led straight into a moving freight. The dog was found dead next day along the rails. The story given by Mr. Wolf and written by the Herald editor was mailed to the magazine and will appear in the next issue.

Mr. Wolf received many letters from over the state after the story of the dog's death was published.

Frank Wendt, Home Agent for Hardeman county, living at Quanah, spent the week end here, returning to his home Monday, accompanied by his wife and small son, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baskin the past month.

Ben Lindemar of Ben Arnold in reporting on the flood the other day said that no considerable damage had been done in his neighborhood although terraces were washed in a number of places. The rainfall is worth millions to Texas farmers. Mr. Lindemar is a Herald reader and while in the city took advantage of his visit to advance his reading date to 1936. The publishers appreciate his reader support. He finds many things of interest each week in this old newspaper and wants it mailed to his home address to keep him posted on the happenings over the county.

Mrs. T. J. Phipps of Bunch, Oklahoma, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. A. R. Oneal.

What a Mistake!

The judges at a French beauty show in Paris carelessly select a German girl as "Miss France" and almost produce a riot.

Amid details the winner does not accept the title, although loyal to France despite the fact that she "unfortunately" was born in Germany, and the judges award the crown to a Parisian.

Thus it appears an ugly international incident is avoided and French patriotism maintained.

Drunk Men and Automobiles

It is reported, occasionally, in Milam county that some drunken man has been seen driving an automobile on the public highways. We can hardly conceive of a more dangerous habit. To check it effectively will require drastic and certain punishment regardless of whether an accident occurs or not.

It will not do to permit the inebriated man to run his automobile on the highway to the peril of law-abiding citizens.

The danger is real to all who have ever met a drunken driver. Many accidents occur every day in this country thru drinking and driving. It simply cannot be done with safety, and society should take prompt steps to make it highly unprofitable to those who persist in operating auto vehicles without regard to their condition.

Advising Milam County Graduates

With schools closing in Milam County the graduates are the recipients of much free advice. Not to be snowed under, they are told enough to tell the present world what they think about it. The battle, as usual, is a drawn one.

The Herald does not wish for tell the scholars of Cameron and Milam county what they must do with their lives. We ask them however, to appreciate the fact that they have just begun to learn about the world and the things that are in it. The fight for intelligence is only beginning.

Book sense is easily acquired by those who, as the school children say, put out. It is the reward of study and attention. Harder than the acquisition of intelligence however, is the wisdom and self control that come with experience. The graduates will find this to be true, although they will not believe it now.

Youth undertakes many things that older people tolerantly permit. Fired with enthusiasm, and a purity of purpose, the young wish to go forward, to improve rapidly, and say so. They attack frontally, where wisdom, as it is understood by their elders, advises a flank attack, which is slower but more apt to be successful.

We want all those who leave the schools of Milam County this year to understand that they have the best wishes of all the older people. Your elders will watch with interest your renewal of a fight that they abandoned after some desultory skirmishing years ago. They will not envy your success. Rather they will acclaim it, and join you in hailing the new day that you cherish and they desire.

PARENTS MUST HANDLE CHILDREN TOGETHER

One of the greatest mistakes made by parents is that of not co-operating. It is hard enough to influence and control children when parents present a united front, but if they ever let the youngsters know that they are not in agreement with each other the task becomes a rather hopeless one.

Mary is a very careless child. She comes to the table with untidy hair. She sits down to a game with dirty fingernails, she leaves the doors open, she flings her sweater on the floor.

Her mother feels that if she is not corrected each time she will be that much harder to break of these careless habits, but her father dislikes the lack of harmony caused by these corrections.

Each time mother tells Mary to go brush her hair, etc., father raises his eyebrows and even though he speaks no word, everyone at the table feels that he has spoken thus: "For goodness sake, is it necessary to spoil every meal or game with these trivial matters. Can't you stop nagging at the children for a few minutes each day?"

This attitude is very demoralizing and the children immediately feel that father is on their side and that these are trivial matters that mother is forever harping on. They feel that mother is a nagger and that she has to have something to fuss about. Consequently Mary is not ashamed of her faults and continues to be careless.

It is a difficult task to correct bad habits if one has the full cooperation of one's husband or wife, but it is well nigh impossible if they incite a child to disobedience.

John is a very careless driver. He has been in several minor accidents. His father decided after the last one that John could not have the use of the car for two months. In the meantime father was called out of town for a week and during that time with the connivance of his mother, John used the car whenever he wished.

Suppose in the first instance Mary's father doesn't think that her mother is using the best method with her; well then, let him express his disapproval in private and he and his wife get together on some other plan.

Suppose in the second case, mother thinks that father has been unduly harsh about the car. If she cannot convince him of this privately she is doing her son much more harm by encouraging him to be a liar and deceiver than to let him do without the car.

A father or mother should be unpardonably harsh and unreasonable before it pays to disapprove of them to your children.

Yours,
LOUISA.

A new Herald reader this week is W. T. Ramsel, tax assessor for Milam county who will have this paper sent to his Cameron address for the next year. Mr. Ramsel, former Rockdale Banker and well known Milam county business man, came to the service of the office of Bill Alex Bonds when that official took office January 1. Mr. Ramsel has offices in the court house formerly occupied by H. B. McClellan. As assessor for taxes Mr. Ramsel is a valuable aid to the office of Mr. Bonds, his business experience giving him equipment to do the job efficiently. The publishers are glad to introduce Mr. Ramsel as a member of the Herald reader family.

Mrs. Jeff Cammer has as guest her mother, Mrs. Mary J. Barrett of Port Arthur.

COMMUNITY SUICIDE

One of the strangest phenomena witnessed in most towns and small cities is the apparent eagerness with which many otherwise good citizens contribute to the tendency to commit community suicide.

These citizens will often show uncommon zeal in boosting any movement to obtain city improvements, to promote the location of new industries, to secure better educational facilities, and so on. Yet many of these same proud boosters will deliberately engage in a practice which nullifies all their otherwise laudable efforts—and wonder why their town doesn't go ahead.

We refer to the suicidal habit of buying away from home.

The enormous growth of the mail order habit in recent years is largely responsible for the failure of many communities to make the progress which their natural advantages should make possible. The money that ought to be kept at home for the expansion of local trade and industry is sent away to distant cities, never to return. The life-blood of prosperity is allowed to ebb away through the indifference and thoughtlessness of the very persons who should set an example of local pride and loyalty.

A trifling saving here and there, usually more imaginary than real, is sufficient to cause the average citizen to forget his duty to his community and to himself, which if performed would mean far more in the direction of local prosperity than all his other boosting efforts put together.

Why boost in one direction while committing community suicide in another.

Mrs. B. B. Coolley of Marlin is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Earle Burke.

2 YEAR EXTENSION OF NRA IS VOTED

Washington, May 25.—Congressional and administration chiefs in secret conference today mapped NRA strategy they hoped would push thru the house Tuesday and into the senate's lap Wednesday a measure extending the recovery unit's life for two more years.

What would happen after the bill was returned to the senate was problematical. But few of the conferees today doubted but that in the end President Roosevelt would get almost everything he wanted.

Participants in the two hour meeting included Donald R. Rieberg, NRA Chief; Speaker Byrns, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic leader; Chairman Doughton and Representatives Samuel B. Hill (D Wash.), Vinson (D-Ky.) and Cooper (D-Tenn.) of the house ways and means committee.

Miss Helen Dierr has as a guest her cousin, Miss Virginia Ledbetter of Eagle Pass. Miss Ledbetter formerly lived in Cameron and has many friends here.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly
Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained.

Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen limbs; feel nervous, miserable—all upset.

Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

THE TOWN BAND

It is safe to say that no institution of a civic nature gives greater returns for the money and effort expended upon it than does a good town band. The benefits derived through the maintenance of a band touch the entire cultural, social and commercial life of the community.

Members of the organization are enabled to develop their musical talents in pleasant association with their fellows, while the discipline necessary to their successful advancement is most desirable for boys and young men.

After the band is capable of playing in public its presence adds immeasurably to parades, ceremonies and celebrations of every kind, while its regular concerts are a source of enjoyment for the entire citizenship.

As a business proposition, a good band is of the greatest value in advertising its town. The better the band the better the advertisement, of course. In some localities it is the custom of merchants' associations to take the band occasionally on good-will trips to various rural communities in their trade territory. Such trips invariably result in closer relations and consequently increased trade.

It does not take a large town to maintain a good band; in fact, some of the best amateur bands are found in towns of less than 1,000 population. With earnest and willing members, a capable instructor and reasonable support from the leading citizens a good band may be developed anywhere.

Many friends will be pleased to learn that J. K. Freeman who has been to Dallas for some time for treatment of his eyes is much improved.

FORD REFINEMENTS AID SUMMER DRIVING

Refinements in the New Ford V-8 cars make summer driving unusually comfortable, according to Hilry Stedman, local Ford dealer.

The Ford body ventilating system is one of the principal comfort factors in hot weather, he explained. This combines an adjustable windshield operated by a single control, a large screened cowl ventilator and the window ventilating system.

In scorching weather, the windows and windshield and cowl ventilator all may be opened allowing a large volume of air to flow through the car. In ordinary weather, the cowl ventilator may be opened. On chilly evenings or when rain is falling, the cowl ventilator may be closed and the window ventilating slots opened. Through these vents air is gently exhausted from the interior, providing adequate ventilation without drafts.

The new "directed flow" engine ventilation system promotes cool engine operation under the most difficult summer heat conditions. A stream of air from the engine fan is caught in a scoop, directed down through a duct into the crankcase, upward into the valve chamber and then out through a vent. It carries away with it water and other vapor, tends to cool the engine oil and prevent oil deterioration in high-speed summer operation.

The V-8 engine design with separate water pump for each block of four cylinders, insures swift and positive water circulation. Each cylinder is fully water jacketed throughout its length. This prevents "hot spots" and cylinder distortion under severe operating conditions.

To cope with effects of heat on brakes, the cast drums of the new brakes have been given added radiating surface and rigidity by means of exterior ribs. This eliminates "fading" of brakes when frequent stops would have a tendency to expand the drums, diminishing the brake effectiveness.

Most motorists are interested in exerting the least possible effort in driving. In this respect the softer yet more effective clutch action of the 1935 Ford V-8 is a decided help. The new clutch, which utilizes centrifugal action to make engagement more positive, requires substantially less pedal effort for disengagement. The desire for a spic and span brightly polished car which finds expression during the summer is frequent cleaning is made easy to gratify with the new baked enamel finish. This finish does not break down under the strong rays of the summer sun, and requires only a washing to revive its brilliant lustre.

J. L. Schreiber who lives on route 2 out of Buckholts, was in Cameron last week end and took advantage of his visit to extend his subscription for another two years. Mr. Schreiber has been attending the farmers school at Ad Hall conducted by E. D. Parnell, teacher of vocational agriculture in the public schools here. On June 10 a demonstration will be held at the Schreiber farm when chickens will be vaccinated against disease. This will be an interesting program and Mr. Schreiber invites his neighbors and friends to attend. The demonstration will be held in the early afternoon.

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Thedford's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

Washington News For Milam County Farmers

From Cameron Herald's Washington Bureau

FARMERS SHOULD SPEAK.
THE DROUGHT DWINDLES.
CATTLE AND COTTON.
RURAL ELECTRIFICATION.

Time and again we have said in this column that we do not know whether the present farm program is the best thing for agriculture or not, but we do not hesitate in advising all farmers to hold to what they have until something better comes along.

Attacks upon the processing taxes will continue. They seem to be reasonably safe just now but you never can tell when the fight will start over. If you are not in favor of the present setup, or if you want certain changes made, it is a good idea to let your Congressman know what you think.

The writer has been writing articles about the necessity for farm relief for many years. He has witnessed the undoubted decline of farm living standards for some years and has heard politicians from all parties, including those in between, tell about what the world owes the farmer. It is high time that this talk produces results. If the AAA has done well, stand up and shout your head off for it; if it has failed you, be equally vociferous in telling about it and demanding some relief.

The drought seems to have been lifted, anyway from most of the counties of the United States, because the last report of the Department of Agriculture listed only 131 "drought counties" among the more than 3,000 in this country.

The recognized drought areas in the nation, pending a new report due June 30th includes 60 counties in Western Texas, 10 in Eastern New Mexico, 7 in Western Oklahoma, 36 in Western Kansas, 14 in Eastern Colorado and 4 in South Central Nebraska.

Certainly the sufferers in the drought area of last year and those still in that classification have the sympathy of every intelligent citizen. Efforts on the part of officials to ameliorate conditions have the approval of almost everyone, and the hope is that the near future will bring about a situation that will be better for all farmers.

Consumers who are yelling about the price of meat might be interested to know that cattle and calves on farms, as of Jan. 1, 1935, totalled 60,667,000. There were only 56,701,000 head in 1928 and the ten year average is 61,257,000. While retail beef prices were 39 per cent higher during the first four months of the year than they were in 1933, they were still about 24 per cent lower than in 1929.

Last week a number of officials of electric plants, publicly owned, were in Washington to attend a conference called by Morris L. Cooke Administrator Rural Electrical Administration.

They found out, among other things, that private companies have progressed very slowly in carrying electricity to the farms and that only 800,000 of the more than 6,000,000 farms in the country have current available.

Farmers who read about this conference should not expect the government or the public plants to come out and force them to use power.

They should get busy among themselves, assist in the surveys being made and see what can be done to insure use of the current when available.

At any rate the hope is expressed that rural electrification will be possible on the basis that will permit the farmer to pay around $3 to $3.50 per month for enough current to give him light and water pumping. Naturally, if he uses more current the additional kilowatt hours will be cheaper.

Cotton farmers are still up against huge stocks of cotton. Various figures are given but the New York Cotton Exchange Service says that on April 30th supplies of American cotton in this country totaled 9,259,000 bales. This is a drop from 9,850,000 bales of last year but far more than the 4,656,000 bales that were around in 1929.

It will take some time to dispose of the huge cotton surplus and until this is done cotton planters might as well make up their minds to have some form of control. It does not make much difference where the control comes from so long as it is directed in the interest of the growers.

GREEN & BOEDEKER ANNIVERSARY

THE HOME OF THE GREEN & BOEDEKER STORES

We Thank You

"We appreciate the co-operation of our friends in business, the manufacturers and wholesale distributors, who have paid for space in this edition to show their interest in the success of our business."

New Merchandise In Stores For Anniversary

Special preparation had been made for the four day Anniversary Sale at Green & Boedeker which opened this morning May 30.

Employees were busily engaged throughout the week rearranging the stocks of the store and adding a large volume of new merchandise for the sale.

The Green & Boedeker Store was opened at its present location on June 1, 1934. Success has been phenomenal and during the past 12 months the store has enjoyed a wide patronage throughout the territory.

Newspaper advertising has played a big part in the trade expansion of this store.

Canners Supplies Leads Store Into Large Buying

Supplies for canners of food, co-operation with the Home Demonstration Clubs and stocks to justify claim for better progressive merchandising are some of the features of the Green & Boedeker store in Cameron.

Recently the people were told of a shipment of a car load of jars and cans to supply the trade of the territory. A solid car load of 2200 cases of Ball glass jars were unloaded and have been stored in the building. Sales have seen a great volume of these supplies go to users.

"Modern day merchandising demands this kind of service," said Leland Green, Sr., discussing the big shipment of merchandise. "We believe this will not supply the demand from our store. It is perhaps the largest shipment of this kind ever made to a local merchant direct, but by reason of buying in large quantities we are able to quote prices that are always competitive and often leaders."

IDENTICAL BIDS

New York—For the fourth time in recent months, ten of the leading fire hose manufacturers submitted identical bids to this city, which rejected them also for the fourth time.

B & B Studio

Here is the home of the Green & Boedeker Stores in Cameron. This big building at the corner of North Houston Avenue Across from the Federal Building has 12,000 feet of floor space, is a two story structure and well equipped for these stores. The Grocery and Market Department is in the north half of the building; the Hardware Store in the center and the south portion is used by the Leland Green Funeral Home. This building was constructed by the late Mayor Wallace W. Chambers. During the next four days, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday, May 30, 31 and June 1 and 3 this building will be the scene of one of the most important merchandising events in the history of Cameron. The Green & Boedeker stores are celebrating their First Anniversary with a four day sale. The people of Cameron and trade territory are cordially invited to come and enjoy the program.

They Own the Green & Boedeker Stores

HERMAN BOEDEKER

Mr. Boedeker, member of the firm of Green & Boedeker, has discharged well his responsibilities as part owner and assistant in the management of these stores. Mr. Boedeker was one of the original founders of the Green & Boedeker store in Santa Fe Town on February 3, 1933. When the store was reorganized and moved to its present location he continued to share largely in its management. Mr. Boedeker was born and reared in Cameron and has achieved success as a young man and hundreds of friends are extending their congratulations on this occasion. He is a radio expert, an excellent mechanic and by reason of his knowledge looks to the care of the motors, electric equipment and other important duties about the store. He buys livestock for the market and

B & B Studio

LELAND GREEN, SR.

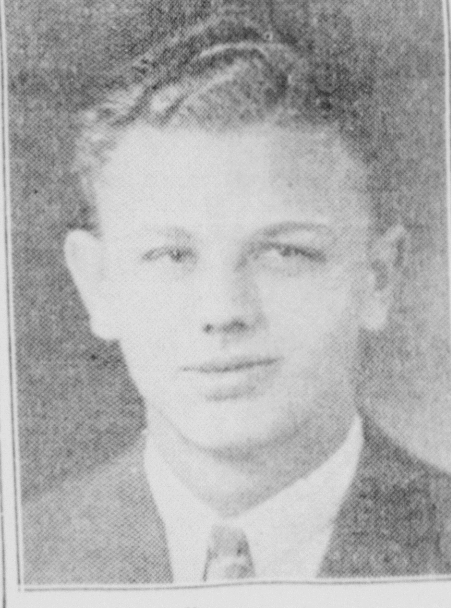

As general manager of the Green & Boedeker Stores and part owner, Mr. Green has been responsible in a big way for the phenomenal success of this big enterprise now celebrating the First anniversary with a four day sale of merchandise. For years prominent in the business life of the community, Mr. Green was able to bring to the Green & Boedeker stores the value of long experience in merchandising. On June 1, 1934 he became a member of the firm. The success of the stores in the past year has been the result in large measure of the management Mr. Green has put behind this fine example of merchandising on a large scale. Mr. Green, in association with his partners, one of whom is his son, Leland, Jr., visualized for Cameron a store that could serve all needs. That he has been able to achieve this ideal is proven by this Anniversary which celebrates success and begins a new day of better service to the people.

also buys a large volume of produce, besides holding a place of importance in the sales force of the grocery and market department. His part in the success of the business has been large.

Grain and Seed Store Part Green - Boedeker Enterprises Here

The secret of successful merchandising is not always to be found in profits or astute buying. It often occurs in vision to supply needs and to provide buying advantages covering every field of demand.

Such was the plan of the Green & Boedeker store in Cameron when established a year ago in its present location.

B & B Studio

LELAND GREEN, JR.

Mr. Green is one of the original founders of the Green & Boedeker store here, holds an important place in the organization of the new stores in Cameron. He is buyer and manager for the grocery and market departments, the largest division of the business. Due to his successful handling of this department the store has become known far and wide for its grocery service. Mr. Green was born and reared in Cameron, was president of his class at Graduation from High School and attended Southern Methodist University. His rise in business has been rapid and today as the stores begin celebration of their First Anniversary, Mr. Green is to share in large measure responsibility for their growth. He has set an example of thrift and industry for which he is receiving the congratulations of the people on this occasion.

In celebrating their first Anniversary of the Greater Green & Boedeker enterprise, the owners point with pride to the grain and seed department which has meant much to the farmers in recent months. During the drought period feed was available to the trade in unlimited quantities. Planting is a large industry in any farm territory such as Milam County and this department has supplied seed to the growers in large volume.

Grains and seeds have been purchased in car load lots to supply the demand. A large storage space is available adjoining the food market with a separate entrance to accommodate the feed and grain business.

HISTORY MAKING SALE IN FOOD AND HARDWARE STORES FEATURES 4 DAY OBSERVANCE OF BIRTHDAY IN CAMERON

Green & Boedeker stores in Cameron are celebrating their First Anniversary with a history making sale in their food and Hardware stores in a gigantic four day observance beginning Thursday, May 30 and ending Monday June 3.

One year ago, June 1, 1934 these stores opened in their present location at the corner of North Houston Avenue across from the Federal building. It has been a year of successful merchandising, trade expansion and service to patrons. To show their appreciation of the patronage that has marked their first year in business, Green & Boedeker have planned this four day selling event and celebration and cordially invite the people of this territory to visit their stores and take advantage of the prices to prevail during this sale.

The four day program includes many interesting phases of merchandising. Free distribution of merchandise through samples by well known manufacturers will feature these four big days in the stores. Refreshments will be served, tea and coffee, and there will be entertainment and hospitality.

For this four day selling event the stores have unloaded several cars of merchandise for distribution. An interesting means of extending appreciation for the patronage that has made these stores stand out among progressive central Texas merchants, will be the giving of low prices during this event.

The stores are prepared to take care of the crowds with extra employees and there will be merchandise enough to accommodate the buyers. Opening on Thursday May 30 the sale will continue through Friday May 31, Saturday June 1 and Monday June 3 which is historic First Monday in Cameron.

Advertising Has Played Big Part In Store Success

Advertising has played a prominent part in the success of the Green & Boedeker stores in Cameron.

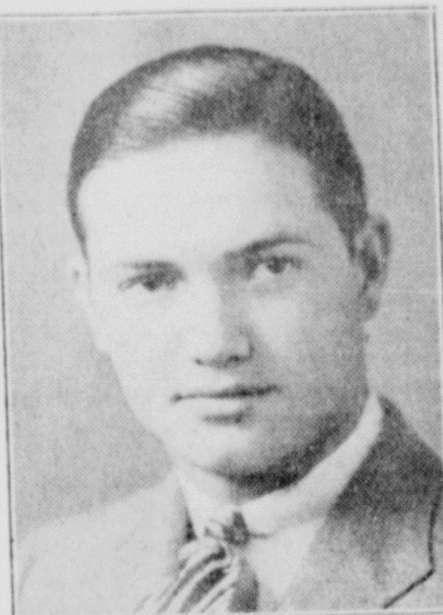

When on February 3, 1933, the young men, Leland Green, Jr., and Herman Boedeker, established the first store in Cameron, they included in their plans a generous provision for advertising. Since that time newspaper advertising has been a fixed plan of investment.

Success has been achieved beyond all expectations. The Green & Boedeker stores have discovered the value of effective advertising and today as they celebrate their First Anniversary in their present location, they give credit in generous measure to the influence of the newspaper which they utilized to sell merchandise.

MARRIAGES INCREASE

Chicago.—Marriages increased rapidly in 1933 and 1934, numbering 1,245,000 in the latter year, as compared to 982,000 in 1932. Figures were reported by Prof. W. F. Ogburn.

Youngest Employee

B & B Studio

PEARCE SCHAUDIES

Although the youngest of the employees in point of service, having been with the stores only 2 months, Mr. Schaudies has found a large place of service in the grocery department. When the Green & Boedeker stores celebrate their Anniversary this week, patrons will be interested to know that he has had a part in the success of their business. He came to Cameron from Port Isabel. He is an expert meat cutter as well as an experienced salesman in the food department.

Clem Zarosky Holds High Place With Green & Boedeker

Clem Zarosky first began his services with the Green & Boedeker store when it was established in Santa Fe Town. He is well known in business circles in Cameron and has played an important part in the expansion and success of the Green & Boedeker stores in Cameron.

He gives most of his time to service in the market and grocery. During the four day celebration of the stores in Cameron Mr. Zarosky will share largely in the program that commemorates the splendid 12 month record of the business which was established in its present location on June 1, 1934.

Mr. Zarosky as a native citizen of this county, enjoys a large acquaintance and invites his friends to visit the store during the celebration sale.

GIRL BURIED ALIVE

New York.—The body of Shirley Evans, 8, was found buried by the collapse of a cave which she and playmates had dug, after hundreds had searched for two days, fearing kidnappers had slain her.

THANKS TO YOU

When we made plans to celebrate our first anniversary, our first thought was of the hundreds of loyal customers and friends who have made our success possible. It is to them we owe our expansion and our opportunity to serve.

We want each one to know this sale is dedicated to them and to the public whom we serve. In rendering this service we have kept in mind our obligation to sell merchandise at the lowest possible margin in order to give our customers the best advantages in buying. In doing this we have followed a policy of buying in large quantities. Several car loads of merchandise are here now for this sale.

Visit our stores and let us tell you how much we appreciate your patronage. We are deeply grateful for the occasion that affords us opportunity to thank you. We look to the future with plans to serve you better.

This Anniversary celebration is a selling event, the largest in our history. Through it we will express to our thousands of friends our sincere appreciation.

Gratefully,

Green Funeral Home Year Old On First of June

The Leland Green Funeral Home was established on June 1, 1934, by Leland Green, Sr., who for many years has been active in funeral work.

Prior to the operation of his funeral home he was with the C. N. Green & Bros. business as undertaker and embalmer. When he left the service of that firm on June 1 last year, he purchased all the equipment of the funeral business and moved it to the present location.

Mr. Green has spent years in preparation for this work. He is not only a licensed embalmer, but is versed in every detail of funeral work. The Leland Green Funeral Home has enjoyed the privilege of serving many during the year and in the observance of the Anniversary of the Green & Boedeker stores in Cameron, attention is directed to the funeral home which has had the active management of Mr. Green and his able assistants.

To provide a suitable convenience Mr. Green set aside from the building space a section which was made into a chapel. This chapel has a private entrance and is elaborately furnished and dignified giving a quiet and reserved atmosphere for funeral hours.

Leading from the chapel is the casket room where large stocks of the finest funeral equipment available is stocked.

The embalming room is removed some distance from the casket room, all connected with private passages and allowing an entrance from the rear of the building. In appointment the details of the Green Funeral Home are carried out in the most modern and refined plan.

Motorized equipment give the Green funeral service an impressive dignity which Mr. Green seeks in all his service as an undertaker.

Mr. Green in observing his first anniversary in this business expressed his appreciation for the privilege to be of service to many "We are grateful for the opportunity to help and our facilities at all times are at the disposal of those who need us," said Mr. Green.

SAW NEED HERE FOR HARDWARE BUSINESS

One year ago when the new and greater Green & Boedeker stores were established in their present quarters, the management visualized a service that could be rendered in a modern, well stocked hardware store.

This determination led to the founding of the Green & Boedeker hardware store which is a part of the vast enterprise. Occupying almost one half of the building with accessible storage above the hardware store has become one of the leading units of the business in point of sales volume as well as service to the trade.

In an essentially adaptable agricultural territory a hardware store must supply in suitable volume and goods the farm trade. When the hardware store was established this phase of service was well considered and provision was made to stock at all times supplies needed on the farm. This stock comes under the head of farm hardware supplies.

Mr. Green is especially proud of the record this department has made in summing up the big year that has made this store one of the leading merchandising establishments in Central Texas.

"Farmers have found in our hardware store buying advantages we wanted them to have," said Mr. Green. "When we added this department in our expansion a year ago we felt that Cameron needed a first class hardware store in this location and we have found that the trade has appreciated our efforts and justified our faith."

Equal in consideration for the farm trade has been the plans for serving needs in the shelf hardware buying. By carrying stocks in both light and heavy hardware the store is able to meet normal demand from all sections of the trade. From the smallest article of hardware to the larger items such as implement supplies, plows, stoves and piping, fencing, etc., this department of the Green & Boedeker store serves the territory.

Canners Supplies Leads Store Into Large Buying

Supplies for canners of food, co-operation with the Home Demonstration Clubs and stocks to justify claim for better progressive merchandising are some of the features of the Green & Boedeker store in Cameron.

Recently the people were told of a shipment of a car load of jars and cans to supply the trade of the territory. A solid car load of 2200 cases of Ball glass jars were unloaded and have been stored in the building. Sales have seen a great volume of these supplies go to users.

"Modern day merchandising demands this kind of service," said Leland Green, Sr., discussing the big shipment of merchandise. "We believe this will not supply the demand from our store. It is perhaps the largest shipment of this kind ever made to a local merchant direct, but by reason of buying in large quantities we are able to quote prices that are always competitive and often leaders."

Appetities Quicken With These Summer Dishes

It's a grand feeling, when you are giving a dinner or luncheon to know that your last minutes before the meals served will be passed in tranquil coolness instead of in a mad scramble in a hot kitchen. You can assure yourself of this comfort if you choose dishes that may be prepared hours ahead of time and packed in the refrigerator. Here is a luncheon menu that requires a magically short time for last minute preparation.

Ice Tomato Juice
Jellied Vegetable Salad
Cold Sliced Baked Ham
Marmalade Biscuits
Frozen Apple Sauce
Cookies
Hot Coffee

Make your vegetable salad the night before. Bake your ham the day before and in the morning slice paper thin and place in the ice box wrapped in wax paper so that it will remain moist. Prepare the biscuit dough and form biscuits in the morning ready to pop into the oven 15 or 20 minutes before serving. Freeze apple sauce in the morning.

Jellied Vegetable Salad.

3 tablespoons gelatine, 1-2 cup cold water, 1 quart canned tomatoes, 2 or 3 onion slices, 1 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon sugar, 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped celery, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 cup shredded cabbage.

Soak the gelatine in cold water 5 minutes. Boil the tomatoes and onion for 5 minutes, strain through a fine sieve. Pour the hot tomato juice over the softened gelatine and stir until dissolved. Add salt and sugar and chill. When the gelatine mixture is slightly soft, add the finely chopped vegetables and mix well. Add more salt if needed. If the mixture is not tart enough add a little lemon juice or vinegar. Pour into wet custard cups and place in refrigerator. When ready to serve turn out on crisp lettuce and serve with mayonnaise.

Marmalade Biscuits

Roll baking powder biscuit mixture 1-4 inch thick. Cut in ovals 6 inches wide. Make 1-2 inch cuts from and parallel with ends, 1 teaspoon of marmalade in center. Bring one end of dough through hole in other end. Bake in hot oven.

If you do not wish to heat the oven to prepare these biscuits you may serve date nut bread in place of them.

The Market Man

B & B Studio

Nothing is more important to a modern food store than a first class market. In this department Mr. Price has made a signal success giving the store and its patrons the advantage of a good market. 1 cup whipping cream
2 tablespoons sugar
1-2 cup cubed canned or fresh pineapple
10 maraschino cherries
Stand 3 or 4 stripes of cake in each sherbet glass. Whip the cream, add the sugar and fold in the pineapple. Place in glasses and let stand in refrigerator for one hour. Sprinkle with chopped maraschino cherries.

Peanut Brittle Ice Box Dessert.

Stir 1 1-3 cups sweetened condensed milk and 3 tablespoons, 1 lemon juice together till mixture thickens. Put 1-2 cup peanut brittle through food chopper, using course knife. Combine two mixtures. Line in oblong pan with wax paper, cover with graham crackers. Put in layer of peanut brittle mixture, repeat graham crackers till mould is full. Let stand 12 hours. Unmold, slice, serve with whipped cream.

PREPARING SUMMER MENUS

Your automatic refrigerator refrigerator will prove a valuable aid in the creation of cool and colorful dishes for summer meals. Not only are such dishes fine in flavor but they have the great advantage of being prepared in advance. Salads, meat loaf, desserts—all may be prepared with the aid of this efficient adjunct to modern housekeeping.

Jellied Beef Broth.

Put three pounds of lean beef cut in small pieces into three quarts of cold water. Add 1 small onion, 1 carrot, 2 tablespoons chipped celery, 2 sprigs parsley and simmer for two hours. Strain through cheesecloth, add salt to taste and beaten white of 1 egg. Boil until clear, strain. Add 2 tablespoons gelatine dissolved in cold water to each quart of stock. Travelers to New Zealand are always impressed by the healthy appearance of the islanders, in fact, thousands of the Antipodeans have taken on an oily obesity. The secret: They are the world's champion butter eaters. They consume 57.7 pounds per capita. If our family consumed butter at this rate, at the prices now prevailing, our butter bill would amount to $904.80 per year. We may not have much to be thankful for, but we can at least be thankful that our wives and children are not New Zealanders.

King George V promised Queen Alexandra in 1881 that he would read a chapter in the Bible daily. He has ever since adhered to that promise. He reached his seventieth birthday on the 3rd of June. He has read the Bible every day for 54 years.

J. Z. YOUNG

Mr. Young has rendered such outstanding service in the food market of the Green & Boedeker stores in Cameron that the management credits him with a large share in the increased business during recent months. When the stores celebrate their First Anniversary beginning Thursday May 30, Mr. Young will be in the grocery department to greet his friends and to assist in the courtesies to be extended customers and the public at large.

Last week a number of officials of electric plants, publicly owned, were in Washington to attend a conference called by Morris L. Cooke, Administrator Rural Electrical Administration.

They found out, among other things, that private companies have progressed very slowly in carrying electricity to the farms and that only 800,000 of the more than 6,000,000 farms in the country have current available.

Farmers who read about this conference should not expect the government or the public plants to come out and force them to use power. They should get busy among themselves, assist in the surveys being made and see what can be done to insure use of the current when available.

At any rate the hope is expressed that rural electrification will be possible on the basis that will permit the farmer to pay around $3 to $3.50 per month for enough current to give him light and water pumping. Naturally, if he uses more current the additional kilowatt hours will be cheaper.

HERE'S Important FOOD NEWS

Use Darker Flours For More Variety in Your Table Breads

The darker flours and meals from different grains—wheat, rye, corn, oats, and flours made of mixtures—contain to a somewhat varying degree, more of the minerals, vitamins, and bran or outer husk of the grain, than do highly milled flours and breadstuffs. Whole grain wheat contains a moderate amount of protein and a fair supply of phosphorus, iron and other minerals, as well as considerable vitamin B and some of vitamins A, E and G. Other whole grain cereals contribute some of these food substances and aid digestion and elimination by furnishing roughage.

Even without the excuse of increased food value, the darker flours have their place in the menu for the sake of variety. The family gets tired of plain white loaf bread, rolls or biscuits day after day. Without much extra work it is easy to change the kind of flour or meal in the breadstuffs and also the form in which they appear on the table. For instance, one might have graham muffins, oatmeal bread, steamed Boston brown bread, corn pones, Sally Lunn, rye bread and other yeast raised breads or buns and cookies made of any of the darker flours.

JOE A. SLAVIK

Mr. Slavik came to the service of the Green & Boedeker stores on December 1, 1934 and in the grocery department, has played an important part in the capacity of salesman. Mr. Slavik will be found at the store during the four day Anniversary celebration to greet his friends and to share with others of the organization the responsibility for one of Central Texas' best merchandising establishments. He is a native citizen here and many will offer him congratulations.

ed fat. If the corn is very moist, even after the liquid has been drained from it, more flour may be added. Fry the corn fritters in deep fat or if preferred, in a skillet of shallow fat. In either case drop the mixture by spoonfuls into the fat and fry rather slowly. The fritters need time to cook through the center before the outside becomes too brown. Drain the fritters on absorbent paper and serve hot.

Orange Omelet

To 4 beaten eggs add 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1-2 teaspoon salt and the juice of 1 medium size orange. Fold in 4 beaten egg whites; cook slowly in buttered frying pan. Brown omelet in hot oven. Cover one half of omelet with orange sections. Fold the other half over.

Potato Omelet

Cut cooked potatoes in tiny cubes and cook in hot fat until thoroughly heated and slightly browned. Over these pour the slightly beaten eggs prepared as for plain omelet and cook in same manner. Allow one medium size potato to two eggs. Sprinkle with finely chopped parsley.

Now that winter is past and the markets are filled with an abundance of new fruits and vegetables you'll be able to give your family a tempting array of new and satisfying dishes. There is a challenge to any good cook in such a wealth of raw material and in its skillful use she increases her reputation for fine cookery. First of all, let us consider the vegetables and the ways they may best be utilized.

Stewed Tomatoes Creole

To one quart of stewed tomatoes add one small onion, sliced; one green pepper, chopped, and salt and pepper to taste. Cover and cook very slowly until cooked down about one-third. This may be done on top of the stove or in a slow oven. Add two tablespoons of butter and 1-2 teaspoon chopped celery. A few chopped parsley. A few chopped cooked mushrooms may be added just before serving.

Cucumbers in White Sauce

Select the largest cucumbers and pare them thinly, then halve and quarter them lengthwise and cut them in two inch pieces. Saute them in butter or other fat to a very light brown, then cover them with a creamy white sauce and simmer over hot water until tender. Beat one egg with a little cold milk and fold it carefully into the sauce and continue to simmer for a moment. Season and add pinch of mace and remove from the fire.

Scalloped Mixed Vegetables

- 2 cups milk
  - 4 tablespoons butter
  - 1-2 teaspoon salt
  - 1-2 cup cooked carrots
  - 1 cup cooked sliced or diced potatoes
  - 1-2 cup cooked peas
  - 1-2 cup grated cheese.
- Melt the butter in a saucepan and add the flour, stirring smoothly, add the milk slowly, stirring all the time.

Cook until the mixture is creamy, stirring constantly. Rub a casserole with shortening, lay the vegetables in alternate layers, pour the white sauce over them, sprinkle the cheese on top and heat in moderate oven for 20 minutes.

Pea Timbales Mushroom Saute

- 1 cup pea pulp
- 1-2 teaspoon salt
- Few grains pepper
- Grating of onion
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 eggs
- Mushrooms.

Drain most of the liquid from freshly cooked peas and rub thru a sieve. Add salt, pepper, onion, butter and well beaten eggs. Pour into greased timbale molds, place in a pan of water and bake in a moderate oven until firm. In the meantime saute peeled fresh mushroom caps until light brown, sprinkle lightly with flour, stir until the flour browns, then add enough water to cover bottom of the pan as the mixture thickens. Unmold timbales onto serving plate and pour around the sauted mushrooms.

SPINACH AU GRATIN WITH BACON

Boil in just enough water to keep from burning 1-2 peck spinach. Drain well, chop fine and add 2 tablespoons fat and salt and pepper to taste, 1 well beaten egg, a dash of nutmeg and 1-4 cup rich milk. Arrange in layers in baking dish, placing between layers thin slices of bacon cooked until crisp. Cover the top with soft bread crumbs and grated cheese. Bake quickly until brown.

BUTTERED ARTICHOKE HEARTS

Drain liquid from artichoke hearts. Heat in a little browned butter and season well with salt and pepper. If desired a little paprika may be sprinkled over them. Allow 3 to 4 to each serving.

Furniture and Home Supplies are Meeting Needs

So complete have been the plans to give the territory a well balanced store the Green & Boedeker business has stocked limited quantities of furniture and household supplies. Meeting such demands as are made on this business to supply the trade, these stocks of furniture, linoleums, stoves and household supplies, have proven the value of all round service to customers.

In time such developments as are necessary will occur in the gradual expansion of this business. The management has found that the furniture and household supply stocks have been appreciated by the trade and that this department of the business has grown along with other departments.

The construction of the building is such that a large space is available on the second floor for displays and Cameron will in time see the addition of better buying advantages in this department.

J. H. Sapp Helped To Plan Funeral Home

J. H. Sapp, veteran business man and well known in the undertaking business in Cameron, had a part in the arrangement of the Green Funeral Home here when it was established a year ago and Leland Green who owns the business, says his services were invaluable.

Mr. Sapp, for many years, was with the C. N. Green & Bros. store and took an active part in the funeral work. When time came to arrange the details of the Leland Green Funeral Home, Mr. Sapp volunteered his services and aided Mr. Green.

Occasionally Mr. Sapp assists in the store of Green & Boedeker and will share along with others the pleasure of public tribute during the Anniversary sale that begins on Thursday, May 30th and continues through Monday, June 3rd.

They Started the Business

B & B Studio
LELAND GREEN, JR.

On February 3, 1933, two Cameron young men, ambitious to achieve something for themselves and with definite plans to provide a merchandising service that would meet the demands for more modern buying advantages, established their own store.

Today these same young men are celebrating the success of their early venture and have seen all their hopes and faith justified. It was a big job and meant hard work. Of energy and determination they had plenty and Cameron and Milam county now pays the tribute that merit so well deserves.

Herman Boedeker and Leland Green, Jr., first opened the Green & Boedeker store in Santa Fe Town in the building that housed the old J. P. Werner store and the late Sustek grocery. Newspaper advertising offered these young men an opportunity and they took advantage of its powers to build their business. From a small beginning these young men forged ahead rapidly. Their business grew. People appreciated their progressive example and rewarded them for the service they gave to the

HERMAN BOEDEKER

Realizing the need for a larger outlet and following the demands for a greater service these young men made their plans and on June 1, 1934 moved to the present location where they now are celebrating their First Anniversary in the larger enterprise.

With them at that time came Leland Green, Sr., who participated in the reorganization and became a part owner of the business.

Mr. Boedeker had been identified with business in Cameron for a number of years and Leland Green Jr., was well equipped to meet the need for better merchandising. Both have profited by their experiences and are giving you the benefit of their knowledge and today are being congratulated far and wide for their success.

Parking Space Big Feature At Green & Boedeker Store

Convenience holds a high place in the service of the Green & Boedeker stores. Buyers find it easy to get access to all parts of the building.

Parking space, a desirable advantage in these modern days food shopping, is one of the attractive induc-ments offered by this store.

The building runs with a wide sweep facing the federal building giving shoppers the advantage of an entire block for cars. In the main entrance the building expanse offers another advantage in parking space.

To the rear of the building a half block of open ground maintained for the convenience of shoppers who wish to park their cars, is available, giving in total the largest possible accessibility to the public.

Space is an important demand of this business. In the building the floor space is large enough to accommodate immense stocks which are necessary to achieve distribution demanded by the growing trade volume.

Storage plays a big part in any successful merchandising enterprise.

Adjoining the food market is a storage served by an elevator that hoists wares and surplus stocks to the second floor, now jammed with merchandise, laid in for the big Anniversary sale.

Access to the second story is also had by means of a large stairway leading from the hardware department.

CARROLL GREEN

Patrons of the store will recall with interest the part Mr. Green, now a student in State University, has played in the success of the Green & Boedeker stores now celebrating their first anniversary. He was actively associated with the store when it was located in Santa Fe Town. He is a brother of Leland Green, Jr., part owner and manager of the grocery and market department. Mr. Green will return home for the four day celebration and will greet his friends at the store.

Old Aristotle had a proclivity for speculation. He speculated on many subjects, but one of the most unique was his speculation on whether a bladder would weigh light when empty of air than when it was full. Many years afterward it was discovered that air has weight. However, research has revealed the startling fact that congressional hot air is absolutely weightless. It might be good stuff with which to fill bladders.

Otto von Guericke invented the vacuum pump in 1650. He gave the world this invention while he was serving as burgomaster of Madeburg. Here is a concrete case of a politician being useful. It stands out as one of the miracles of human history.

Advertising Has Played Big Part
In store Success

Advertising has played a prominent part in the success of the Green & Boedeker stores in Cameron. When on February 3, 1933, the young men, Leland Green, Jr., and Herman Boedeker, established the first store in Cameron, they included in their plans a generous provision for advertising. Since that time newspaper advertising has been a fixed plan of investment. Success has been achieved beyond all expectations. The Green & Boedeker stores have discovered the value of effective advertising and today as they celebrate their First Anniversary in their present location, they give credit in generous measure to the influence of the newspaper which they utilized to sell merchandise.

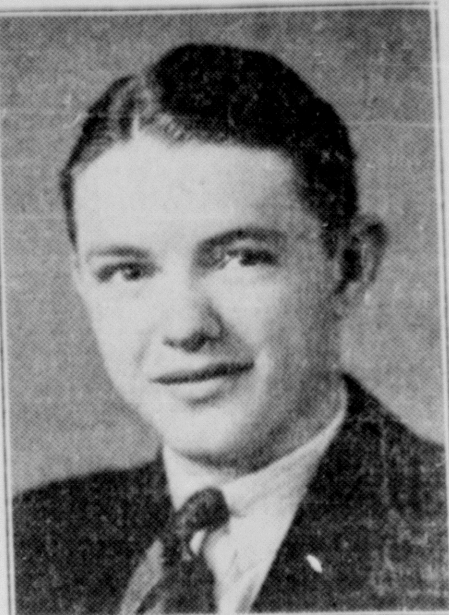

Grain and Seed Store
Part Green - Boedeker
Enterprises Here

The secret of successful merchandising is not always to be found in profits or astute buying. It often occurs in vision to supply needs and to provide buying advantages covering every field of demand. Such was the plan of the Green & Boedeker store in Cameron when established a year ago in its present location.

In celebrating their first Anniversary of the Greater Green & Boedeker enterprise, the owners point with pride to the grain and seed department which has meant much to the farmers in recent months. During the drouth period feed was available to the trade in unlimited quantities. Planting is a large industry in any farm territory such as Milam County and this department has supplied seed to the growers in large volume.

Grains and seeds have been purchased in car load lots to supply the demand. A large storage space is available adjoining the food market with a separate entrance to accommodate the feed and grain business. "This department of our business," said Herman Boedeker, "is a large

In the anniversary sale now being celebrated, Mr. Terry will have an important part. We have always bought in large quantities and because of this fact and the added advantage of being able to handle the feed business we have enjoyed a large trade. Our grain and seed department is convenient to trucks and wagons and we can handle a large volume with a minimum of effort."

Mr. Boedeker was well pleased with this department as well as every other phase of the big store.

AGED FARMER DIES FROM GUN WOUND

Joe Biskup Found Dead, Elm Ridge

Joe Biskup, 72, farmer in the Elm Ridge Community, four miles west of Cameron, was found shot to death around five o'clock Thursday afternoon at his home.

Justice of Peace Womack Brashear, called to the home, viewed the body and rendered a verdict of suicide.

Biskup had been in declining health for more than a year and this is believed to be the motive for his death. Dr. A. S. Epperson of this city who had been attending Biskup last year and the first part of this year was present with Sheriff Max Kennedy and Justice Brashear at the time of the inquest, which was held Thursday evening at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. Biskup told officials that about 5:30 she was sitting in the front room and heard a shot at the back of the house. Upon investigation, she found her husband lying dead on the back porch with a bullet wound in his heart.

It was found that Biskup had cocked the gun, placing the barrel against his body and pulling the trigger by hanging it on the hook of a pair of cotton scales on the porch. It was also found that a 16 gauge cartridge had been wrapped with paper to make it fit in the 12 gauge barrel shot gun with which Biskup shot himself.

Biskup is survived by his widow and several children. The Biskups have been residents of Milam county for many years.

Funeral services were conducted on Friday afternoon at the Biskup home. Interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery, Cameron. Rev. J. W. Horak, pastor of the Lutheran church of Caldwell conducted the services.

FORD TRUCKING COST LOW
A Texas Ford V-8 truck has been driven well over 100,000 miles with a semi-trailer consistently loaded with at least 15,000 pounds pay load, at an operating cost of 4 cents per mile.

Dealer Tells Ford's Ideas On Service

Henry Ford's constant efforts to decrease the cost of operating an automobile, and his belief that "it pays in the end to do a thing right" are revealed in the Ford engine exchange plan recently announced by the Ford Motor Company, and explained today by Hilry Stedman of Hefley-Stedman Motor Company, local Ford dealers.

"Henry Ford always has believed that a sale does not complete the transaction between the Ford Company and the car buyer," he said. "The sale, in Mr. Ford's belief, establishes a new obligation on the company and the dealer to see that the car gives the buyer good service. Mr. Ford is as much interested in the economical operation of the car as the buyer is in the economical manufacture of it.

"Mr. Ford," he declared, "believes that the reconditioning of an engine is so important that it should be done by the same men, machines and methods which produced the engine originally. For this reason the new exchange plan enables Ford owners to exchange their cylinder assemblies and certain other units for those reconditioned at the Ford factory in Dearborn, Mich. The reconditioning is done by the same machines, men and methods employed in manufacturing the units originally."

The engine assemblies and other units are tested and pass a strict factory inspection before being returned to the owner. Other units available under the plan include carburetors, distributors, fuel pumps, generators and others. As a characteristic of all Ford operations affecting the public, the cost of the exchange parts is unusually low.

Mrs. C. A. Blasienz Is Laid To Rest In Little River Plot

BROOKER IS NAMED IN TEXAS DEATH PROBE

Albert Brooker, sentenced to serve 8 years in Texas prison from Milam county, on pleas of guilty involving burglary charges against him, was listed in a report by officers at Cleburne Saturday as one of the three men who killed E. E. Mallory at Burleson, Texas, on October 8, and according to press dispatches, is said to have signed a confession in which he admits participation in the filling station robbery that cost Burleson his life.

Ranger Sid Kelso, said that Brooker was the trigger man in the robbery.

Davilla Student Makes High Grade

The Herald publishers are in receipt of an interesting and highly appreciated note from Dorothy Ruth Brown of Davilla.

She had just read the account of Claude Robbins, Jr., 8, who made a fine record as a student in Clarkson, and the Herald is happy to present the letter from Dorothy Ruth:

"I notice the good report of Claude Robbins, Jr., 8, in his school work at Clarkson.

"I am six years old and was promoted to third grade this term of school and made 53 A's on my report card. I live two miles from school. My teacher was Miss Sallie Graham. I am the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brown and my name is Dorothy Ruth Brown."

Mrs. Will Koenig has a very sick baby in the Cameron Hospital, but it is thought to be improving.

Waco, Texas.—Two men who have had spectacular parts in Waco's crime history and another who has been at least slightly involved, are among four convicts alleged to have signed a confession to the murder on October 8 of E. E. Mallory, Burleson filling station operator, according to press dispatches quoting Ranger Sergt. Sid Kelso.

Bryan (Ghost) O'Neal, now serving a term for kidnapping in connection with the most recent of the series of amazing jail breaks which earned him his sobriquet, is one of those named.

Timberlake is Another.

Another is Truman Timberlake, of the famous Timberlake and Jennings pair, who overpowered Sheriff W. B. Mobley and Deputy H. S. Lake when being brought here for trial a few weeks after Mobley took office, and led officers a wild and bullet punctured chase in stolen cars across country for two days before they were run down and re-captured in Lampasas county. ## XXX PEARL COMETS WIN TWO STRAIGHT

The Cameron XXX Pearl Comets won their fourth and fifth straight cup race games at Lawless Green Field Sunday afternoon, by defeating the Cameron K. of C. Team 4 to 3 and then swamping Granger 14 to 4. The K. C. game was a hard fought game throughout and the K. C.'s put on a three run rally in the 8th inning that knocked out Clarence Anderson the XXX chunker, lacked only one score of knotting the count and was brought to a stop by a neat double play with two men on bases. Ladis Matula, K. C. pitcher, held the Comets to 6 hits while he and his mates made 10 bingles off Anderson. Only great fielding by the Comets and some wild base running by the K. C.'s kept the Comets from taking a licking from their fellow townsmen. Doug Williams was the only Comet player to make two hits while Ross, Bell and Ladis Matula made two each for the K. C. team.

The Comets did their best hitting of the season in the Granger game to bang out 18 base knocks. Each of the Comets made two hits except Jenness, the XXX Pearl catcher, who made only one, but his battery mate, Heinie Schottle pounded out three to round out an even 18. Schottle held Granger to 8 hits with Sonny Bartosh, Baylor freshman foot ball star, being the only Granger player to make two hits. Manager Henderson Walker's two hits were both doubles, one of which lacked only inches of clearing the left field wall.

After a slow start the Comet machine now seems to be hitting on all four and the Comets should be hard to down for the balance of the season. The XXX Pearl boys will play Granger a return game at Granger Thursday and will play the powerful LaGrange Demons at LaGrange Sunday.

Local fans are already looking forward to June 9th when the Comets play the Hilltop Bakers a double header at Lawless Green field. The Bakers are conceded to have one of the strongest semi-pro nines in the State.

—Cliff Thompson.

MORE ABOUT RUTH.
CARDINALS BOYCOTTED.
HOME TALENT BOYS.
BABE DIDRIKSON BARRED.
OPEN FAVORS SARAZEN.
N. A. A. U. MARATHON.
YANKEE IN ENGLAND.
MORE BASEBALL TRADES.
TENNIS NOTES.
IN SHORT—

While Babe Ruth this season has been practically no help at all in winning games for the Braves, the Bambino still remains the tops in the columns of the feasting sports writers. Ruth's switch over to the National League this year has become the fruit for a brand new batch of stories, each just so much different from the other. A report here states that the Babe is tired of ball, another quotes him as saying that he'll play as long as his legs will allow, and many others predict for the big fellow the managerial post on the Braves within a few days. One doesn't know just what to believe when reading all these angles of Babe's future. The writer does not claim to have an inside story on Ruth's plans, but it is assured that the Babe will get his promotion to the Brave's helm, which he surely deserves, at some future date.

Through the alleged activities of Leo Durocher as an anti-advocate, 3 unions have boycotted the Cardinals. Durocher, whose wife works at a shop where union workers are on a strike, claims no part in the activities, and is still in the good graces of the Cards' ownership. The first day after the boycott was called saw an average attendance to witness the St. Louis-Boston game, and it was not known at the time just how much future games would be affected by the union's decision. Believing that it would interfere with Durocher's sense of justice, the Cardinal management has decided not to remove him from the regular line-up. Another angle presented by President Sam Breadon is that Durocher's value at short stop will likely offset any minor decrease in attendance.

A surprising number of major league ball players who were born and raised in big league towns find themselves with clubs of another city when they break into the big show. Lou Gehrig is the best known of a select group of players who were signed by a club as home talent. Gehrig was plucked from Columbia University by the Yanks. George Uhle, one-time pitching star, and Joe Vosmik each hooked up with the home club—the Indians, while Jake Powell, Washington's rookie regular, was signed from the sandlots of Silver Spring, a suburb. Frankie Frisch was picked from Fordham by the Giants and is becoming another of the best bets of the home-boys group.

On the other hand, when Cleveland was looking all over organized baseball to find a successor to George Burns, fading out at first base, Joe Kuehl, Cleveland boy, was developed at Kansas City. He was passed up but is now one of the best fielding first-sackers in the game. Other present-day stars overlooked by the home club include Bogi Berger, Duke Werber, Ed Linke and Hank Greenberg. Maybe the boys just can't show much at home.

Babe Didrikson, the Texas "wonder girl" athlete, has been barred from this year's amateur golf competition as the result of a decision handed down by the United States Golf Association. In keeping with the organization's policy, no statement was made regarding the grounds on which the Texas woman champion was made ineligible, but it is understood that her professional activities in other sports forced the decision. The ruling was followed by a chorus of protests coming from many athletic clubs and organizations in Texas, including the Texas Professional Golfers Association. The protest was summed up in the question, "Were her pro activities in other sports enough to keep her from amateur golf competition, in which she had been only an amateur?"

The National Open Golf championship under way next week at Oakmont, is expected to find Gene Sarazen, now known as the "double eagle kid," as the prime favorite at starting time. Odds at present favor Sarazen, with Olin Dutra, Craig Wood, Henry Picard, Paul Runyan, and Ky Laf-foon following in order. Among those who have failed to qualify for the tourney include Wild Bill Mehlborn and Willie Klein and Johnny Fisher, well known golfers all who had been expected to qualify with little trouble.

The leading marathon runners of this continent and probably Dave Komonen, the Finn, will compete in the fourth annual N. A. A. U. marathon championship Saturday, June 1, in the run from Mount Vernon to Washington. Included also in the race, which will see some three score marathoners start out from Mt. Vernon, will be Pat Dengis, of Baltimore, and Johnny Kelly. Kelly won the Boston marathon in April.

Eyes of the boat racing followers are turned toward England where the American sloop Yankee is awaiting the start of the British regattas on June 1. The sloop made a safe and comfortab trip across the Atlantic, arriving some fifteen hours ahead of the schooner, Atlantic, which was supposed to be accompanying her on the trip.

Three new trades mark the rush of big league owners to get their rosters settled before the trading deadline, June 15. The Browns led by engaging in two important moves. Buck Newsome, who won sixteen games for the lowly Browns last year, was sold to the Washington club for $50,000 worth of money received by that club in the Joe Cronin deal this past winter. George Blaeholder, veteran of many seasons with the Browns, was traded to the A's for Parke Coleman, outfielder, and Merritt (Sugar) Cain, pitcher. None of the three hurlers involved has much of a record thus far in the campaign.

George Earnshaw, in the other deal, was sold outright to Brooklyn.

Helen Wills Moody, after showing excellent form in recent practices, has decided to enter the Wimbledon tournaments this summer in beginning a comeback. . . . Bill Tilden, among others with the same opinion, is doubtful as to whether she will be able to return to her old prowess as the leading woman tennis player of the world. . . . Big Bill also believes that there is no chance for the Americans in the Davis Cup play this year. He believes that in two years Gene Marko, Donald Budge, Frankie Parker, Sidney Wood, and other of the younger players, will have just the amount of experience needed to regain the cup for America. . . . Tilden continues to thrill audiences throughout the country as he extends his tour. . . . An injury received during a match play forced Mako to default his final match in America's recent matches with Mexico. . . . The forfeit prevented America from obtaining a clean sweep in their matches. . . . Wilmer Hines, former captain of the University of North Carolina tennis team, has a very successful record to show for his long tour through Europe recently when he was the leading American racquet-wielder in foreign competition.

W. H. (Billy) Thom, whose wrestling proteges at the University of Indiana, have won 55 matches and lost only 4 during the past seven years, has been selected as the United States Olympic wrestling coach for 1936. . . . Walter Johnson has kept his Indians near the top of the American League in spite of Earl Averil & Co.'s rebellious attitude and the great number of Cleveland fans who are packing the outfielder. . . . The St. Louis Browns often play to week day crowds of less than 300 at Sportman's Park. . . . Were it not for the rent of the park collected each season from the Cards and the occasional sale of players the team would be bankrupt. . . . Several big league hurlers are also dangerous hitters—Ruffins, Lucas, Schumacher, Ferrell, Lyons, Burke, Walters J. Dean and Whitehill lead the pack. . . . Schumacher hit six round trippers last season. . . . Realizing the Browns could use dough, five clubs are after Sammy West, most valuable man on the club. . . . Hornsby wisely says "No Sale." . . . Most of the talk about Jim Braddock's ability is considered by those who should know to be a lot of hooey. . . . They say it is to increase interest in the Baer-Braddock bout. Joe Louis says that he expects to fight Max Baer later and win the championship from him. . . . He should remember that he has a fight with Carnera on his hands.

STRAYED—From my Salem farm about May 7th, light yellow Jersey heifer about 18 months old, has short horns, no brands; in poor flesh; springing heavy. Reward. Julian P. Baskin.

Twenty-five Years on a TRENCHING Expedition to reach Your Doorstep with Natural Gas!

Petrolia cyclone in 1925 wrecked most of the field and compressor equipment, but not a customer on the lines missed his gas that day.

Lone Star has built seven river bridges to keep pipelines from washing away.

Started with twelve wells in Petrolia field. Now this system draws on 1,000 wells for cold weather load.

25 compressor stations force gas over long distances.

Deep-sea diving, to relay pipes in Galveston Bay.

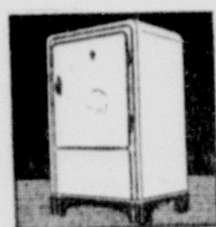

Southwesterners Snap Up New Inventions

People have used more gas than we dreamed of in the beginning, because of the new inventions they have snapped up. Imagine our surprise when even the Refrigerators began running with gas. There have been remarkable inventions in industrial gas equipment, from oil refineries to automobile jannanning-ovens. There are House-Heating Systems that clean and moisten the air, as well as warm it; there are Clothes Dryers, Radiators, Floor Furnaces, Automatic Ranges, Incinerators, and so forth. For running a cement plant to warming a baby's bath, these Lone Star towns enjoy an automatic heat that has made their skylines famous for their smokeless chimneys.

A quarter of a century of careful planning has made natural gas so low-priced at your meter that 15 cents' worth a day is the average household load the year around, for heating, cooking, hot water and refrigeration.

Aged Confederate Knew Civil War at Its Worst

Murdock McLeod of Rockdale, believed to be the oldest living Confederate veteran in Milam county, was 94 years of age on April 18.

McLeod was born in Jasper county, Mississippi and when one month old, moved with his parents to Louisiana, where he spent the first ten years of his life. In 1851 the family moved to San Gabriel, Milam County, where they lived for eight years. In 1859 they moved to Goliad county, on the San Antonio river.

Served under Bragg.

This true Southern gentleman recalls many interesting experiences during his time in the war between the States. He enlisted in the Civil War when 20 years of age, and took part as a private in the war in Company H, 6th Texas Infantry, under Colonel Garland, Brigadier General Granbury, Division General Pat Claiborne, Major General Bragg.

There was a German soldier in his company at this time, a genial, likable fellow, who failed to answer to roll call several times. General Bragg could not appreciate such lack of promptness, so he ordered the soldier shot. When the time came for the firing squad to appear, a number of letters were delivered to General Bragg instead, advising him that if this soldier were shot, it would not be safe for him to remain in charge of that company. General Bragg realized that another could discipline the company better than he, therefore General Joe Johnson was placed in Command.

Was Taken Prisoner.

Mr. McLeod began his service in Arkansas. His daring on three occasions led to his capture. He was taken prisoner with his regiment at Arkansas Post, which was the first capital of Arkansas, on the Arkansas River. Here they were building a fort to keep boats from going to Little Rock. The captured soldiers were taken to Springfield, Illinois, where they lay in prison for three months. At the expiration of this time an exchange of prisoners was effected and Mr. McLeod returned to his company.

Is Re-Captured.

At Tullahoma, McLeod took active part in the operations about Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge and Chattanooga, and in all of the Georgia campaign down to Atlanta. On the reorganization of the Confederate forces before Atlanta, he was sent to Chattanooga, Tenn., taking part in most of the disastrous campaign. Here he was captured the second time, and in his own words: "This time I outran the bullets and returned to the Southern Army." He was captured in the battle of Franklin, Tenn., and lay in prison for six months, with barely enough to eat to sustain life. He tells of some of his fellow prisoners who grew so weak on the rations that they had to be lifted to their feet to walk.

Wounded Five Times.

Five times during the war McLeod was wounded. He tells of his being wounded at Franklin, Tenn., and of asking one of the volunteer nurses to dress his wounds. Vehemently she said to him, "Get away from here, you dirty rebel. I wish they had killed you." Such was the hatred between the North and South.

Veteran at 24.

The close of the war found him a veteran of one of the great wars of history at the age of twenty-four, lying in prison at Franklin, Tennessee. The soldiers were given tickets for the trip home, but in some way, McLeod was given a ticket belonging to an Arkansas soldier, and the mistake was not noticed until he boarded a boat at Cairo, Ill., bound for New Orleans, La., and when some distance out, the discrepancy was found. McLeod was severely reprimanded and put to work to pay his passage. He was sent to the boiler room to stoke the fire, but because of his affable disposition, others seemed to delight in doing his work for him as long as he would entertain them with stories of the wild life in Texas.

Texas Called Devils.

The Texas soldiers were called "devils," since Texas was at this time considered outside the pale of civilization and the meeting ground for renegades and outlaws of every kind. Although there were a great many worthy families here, the lax laws under which it was governed made it the gathering place for desperadoes. The captain of the boat heard that McLeod was not working and sent for him. McLeod began telling the Captain interesting stories of Grand old Texas, and it was not long until they were fast friends, and there was no more trouble about the wrong ticket.

Settled in Milam.

After the war McLeod returned to his home to face the problems of reconstruction, enemies more to be dreaded than the forces of invasion by which he had been overwhelmed. In common with his countrymen, he began rebuilding a shattered land. He settled on a farm in Milam county and a number of years later engaged in farming on the San Gabriel. In 1867 he was united in marriage to Miss Martha Ella Chrisp, a Milam county girl, who was born April 1, 1852 at old Hickory Grove church, which still stands. They lived on a farm in the fork of San Gabriel and Brushy until 1921, rearing a family of eight children, five of whom still live. Mrs. McLeod died on June 19, 1928.

Traded at Rockdale.

Mr. McLeod bought the first dol-

REUNION OF MILAM RESIDENTS IN AUSTIN

The Herald is in receipt of an appreciated letter from Mrs. Marian B. Smith of Austin who lives at 703 Park place, announcing a reunion of all former residents of Milam county, now living in Austin. The meeting is to be held on June 9th.

"For the past two years," says Smith, "the old residents of Rockdale have had a reunion on the second Sunday in June. This year it has been suggested that we invite all of the old residents of the county and discuss some phase of the Centennial movement."

"We will meet at the park and everybody is expected to bring a basket lunch. There will be a brief religious service and several short talks by former residents."

Mr. Loewenstein had not put in a store at this time but kept a small stock of groceries in a tent, having them hauled to Rockdale by team.

S. D. Dick, the fourth man, had never been arrested before.

Records Show Ghost in Pen.

But McLennan county authorities who point out O'Neal escaped from jail here June 13 of last year and was recaptured July 5 in Hillsboro and who has been in custody either in county jails or in prison, are puzzled at this angle.

A woman was arrested here late Friday by Detective Capt. M. Burton and was to be questioned about the case by Johnson county officers.

Held in a Hijacking.

According to the records of the district attorney's office, Albert

Brooker, supposed to have been connected with the murder at Burleson on October 8, 1934, was held here in connection with the hijacking of the Safeway store at Eighteenth and Washington and the Piggly-Wiggly Store at Twenty-Second and Bosque on January 19, 1935. Henry Nelson was also held in connection with these robberies, but neither of them were billed by the grand jury when it convened February 26, 1935.

HENRY-LESSON RADCLIFFE

THE HOLY SPIRIT
International Sunday School Lesson
for June 9, 1935.

GOLDEN TEXT: "As many as are led by the Spirit of God these are the Sons of God."—Rom. 8:14.
(Lesson Text: John 16:7-11; Rom. 8:10-17, 27)

Additional Scriptural references: Joel 2:28, 29; Luke 11:9-13; John 3:5-8; 14:16, 17, 26; 15:26, 27; Acts 2:1-21, 32, 33; 1 Corinthians 12:1-13; Ephesians 1:13, 14; 3:14-21; 4:1-6, 30.

Many Christians have hazy ideas of the Holy Spirit. Yet, as R. A. Torrey says, "it is the highest importance from the standpoint of worship that we decide whether the Holy Spirit is a divine person worthy to receive our adoration, our faith and our love, or simply an influence emanating from God, or a power that God imparts to us. If the Holy Spirit is a divine person and we know it not, we are robbing a divine Being of the love and adoration which are his due. It is of the highest practical importance that we decide whether the Holy Spirit is a power that we, in our weakness and ignorance, are somehow to get hold of and use, or whether the Holy Spirit is a personal Being, infinitely wise, infinitely holy, infinitely tender, who is to get hold of and use us."

"There is one God, only one God, who reveals himself to us, and deals with us in three ways so different that we call him by three different names," says George Hodges, in the Training of Children in Religion. "When we think of God as the Maker and Maintainer of the universe, according to whose power all things have their being, we are thinking of him as the Father. When we think of God as manifesting himself to us in the history of the race of men, and especially and supremely in the life of Christ, we are thinking still of the same one God, but as the Son. When we think of God as revealing his will in our conscience, and thereby teaching us how to do better, and at the same time to attain the betterment which is thus revealed, we are thinking again of the same God, whom we called first Father and then Son, and whom we now call the Holy Spirit."

Our lesson deals with various references to the Holy Spirit from the Bible. Others which reveal characteristics of the Holy Spirit picture him as a person, as in John 15:26, and other passages, the apostle uses personal pronouns. Other passages ascribe to him the same reactions as those of a person for example, love in Romans 15:30 grief in Ephesians 4:30, and knowledge in 1 Corinthians 2:10 and 11. Likewise, the Holy Spirit is pictured as acting like a person: in Revelations 2:7 and Galatians 4:6 he speaks, in John 15:26 he gives testimony, in Acts 15:6 and 7 he commands and in Acts 13:2 and 20:28 he appoints man to office. The Holy Spirit is revealed by the scriptures as a person just as clearly as Jesus himself was a person.

"The Holy Spirit is God continually in the midst of men and touching their daily lives," says Phillips Brooks. "He is the God of perennial and daily inspiration. The comforter to whom we look in the most pressing needs of comfort which fill our common life. He is the God of continual contact with mankind. The doctrine of the Holy Spirit is a continual protest against every constantly recurring tendency to separate God from the current world. A God who made the world and then left it to run its course under the tyranny of force and law; a God who redeemed the world eighteen centuries ago and left it to be blessed by or to miss the blessing of the redemption which he had provided—neither of these ideas of Deity can comprehend the truth of God, the Holy Spirit."

The gift of the Holy Spirit is revealed to us as the greatest gift of God, but we should remember, as J. Ritchie Smith points out, that "for spiritual gifts there must be the preparation of mind and heart. He only receives who desires. There is much in life that we receive without asking, find without seeking, but the crowning gifts of God are reserved for the earnest spirit, the eager desire, the hungering and thirsting after righteousness which is imparted only by the Spirit of God." Receiving the Holy Spirit is the new birth

Refreshing Relief When You Need a Laxative

Because of the refreshing relief it has brought them, thousands of men and women, who could afford much more expensive laxatives, use Black-Draught when needed. It is very economical, purely vegetable, highly effective. . . Mr. J. Lester Roberson, well known hardware dealer at Martinsville, Va., writes: "I certainly can recommend Black-Draught as a splendid medicine. I have taken it for constipation and the dull feelings that follow, and have found it very satisfactory."

about which Nicodemus was told. "This great change is not merely the improvement of any power, or grace, or gift, which we naturally have," says George Reith, "not merely amendment of life, not merely abandoning sin. Flesh may be flesh still. The whole man must be transformed—mind, heart and will."

The effect of the Holy Spirit upon a life is pictured by A. J. Gordon: "I have seen in the autumn, when the trees shed their leaves, that two or three leaves have stuck fast on the branches, and have clung to them all the winter through. Storms have beaten them; frosts have bitten them; snow and rain have blackened them; yet they have held fast to the tree. But when the spring has come, and the sap has begun to ascend and push its way through every branch and every twig, the leaves have disappeared—pushed off by the rising tide of a new life; for death can never stand before life. So it is with us. Those old inveterate habits that belong to our fallen nature are very hard to get rid of. We battle with them and try to beat them off; but again and again we are defeated. . . But when the Spirit of the Lord fills and possesses us, then these habits disappear almost unconsciously, because death cannot stand before life."

Miss Dorothy Worcester of Waco has been visiting relatives in Cameron this week.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly
Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained. Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen limbs, feel nervous, miserable—all upset.

Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

Fresh, pure air . . . constantly circulated at just the right temperature and humidity to keep your food in perfect condition. That's modern air-conditioned refrigeration with ice!

Odorless, Tasteless Refrigeration!

Odorless . . . because the constantly changing air freshens the interior of the modern ice refrigerator, thus removing strong odors. This air-conditioning process makes it possible to place, in open rooms, butter or milk, in the same storage space with onions, egg, or other foods with a distinctive odor. The air-circulating effect of the unit is in fact all odors out of your refrigerator. Each food retains its own individual flavor. More Power

Unfailing Electric Service is the Result of Unified Management

If you had 10,000 electric light bulbs in your home or business, you could turn them all on at once. "Of course," you say.

But 30 years ago you couldn't.

If you wanted to build a factory here today to use heavy electrically-driven machinery, you wouldn't have to worry about power. There's more at your fingertip than you ever would need.

Should a manufacturer come here looking for factory sites, you can tell him this: "We can offer you unlimited power, at low cost. We are served by interconnected system power under unified management." No manufacturer can ask a better guarantee of efficient and limitless service than that.

In the past thirty years, unified management has developed the gas and electric utility business from feeble beginnings to what it is today. Unified management was responsible for bringing together scattered and isolated plants into systems, for furnishing them with the money to make improvements, for advising them on better ways to serve you. To the holding company, unified management, should go the credit for today's unlimited power at low cost.

Yet the holding company, and in fact, the whole gas and electric utility industry, is in danger now. A bill known as the "Wheeler-Rayburn" bill, now in Congress, proposes to destroy the industry as you know it, and toss the remainder into the lap of political control. It would wipe the holding company out of existence, and strip your company of the present connections it has for giving you dependable service.

If government can do this to the utility business, it can do likewise to all business. Such an attitude retards recovery. For recovery, business must have confidence in government, instead of fear as to its future because of government.

If you are in accord you can help by writing to your senators and representatives in Washington advising them you are opposed to the Wheeler-Rayburn bill.

From the Writer's Digest.

"Help struggling writer pay board. Lost replies other id. Miss B. Barnett, General Delivery, Denver, Colorado."

It was not necessary to insert the word "struggling." It is quite superfluous, for all writers are struggling. It might be quite fitting that the greater part of the writer tribe "struggle into some gainful occupation. However, it would be rather pathetic should the Denver writer's board bill go unpaid. We take pleasure in referring her case to our rich bachelors. Too, she might get in on the Denver chain letter gag.

Travelers to New Zealand are always impressed by the healthy appearance of the islanders, in fact, thousands of the Antipodeans have taken on an oily obesity. The secret: They are the world's champion butter eaters. They consume 37.7 pounds per capita. If our family consumed butter at this rate, at the prices now prevailing, our butter bill would amount to $904.80 per year. We may not have much to be thankful for, but we can at least be thankful that our wives and children are not New Zealanders.
